++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain clearing east tonight. Further heavy rain on Saturday evening.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any rain will gradually clear east through the evening to become patchy and confined to East Anglia after midnight. It'll remain mostly cloudy though, with perhaps a few breaks developing around dawn. Wind also easing along Norfolk coasts. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Saturday:
Largely cloudy at first but dry and brightening up. Rather warm away from coastal areas. Rain, occasionally heavy and perhaps thundery, will become extensive during the evening. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Cloudy with occasionally heavy rain or thundery showers through the period. Feeling rather cool in the wetter periods, with only brief sunny interludes expected.
